- 8:30 - 8:40 a.m. Welcome, Introductions, Review of Anti-Trust Guidelines and Packet Materials, Topics for Roundtable
Dave Andrea, Senior Vice President, Industry Analysis and Economics, OESA
- 8:40 – 9:00 a.m. WorkingHabitat – A Portal to Engineering Resources
Tim Calkins, President and CEO, WorkingHabitat. This brief segment will introduce the Council to a new resource that matches skilled workers with short and long-term needs of manufacturers. WorkingHabitat is a portal creating an international market for Michigan-based workers with specialized skills and teaming them with the back shop resources of Autodesk and Kelly Services to meet supplier project needs (with the flexibility of temporary, contract workers).
- 9:00 - 10:00 a.m. Roundtable Discussion
 - Topics to be submitted by council members
- 10:00 - 10:20 a.m. Break
- 10:20 – 11:00 a.m. Washington Update
Ann McCulloch, Director, External Affairs, MEMA
Ann will provide an overview of the public policy debates, legislation and regulation that affects personnel and organizational strategies. Council members are encouraged to send any specific issues you wish addressed to Karen Bohannon in advance.
- 11:00 – 12 noon McGraw Wentworth 2010 Southeast Michigan Mid-Market Group Benefits Survey
Sue Mathiesen, Director of Research, McGraw Wentworth. Sue will discuss their recently released survey that tracks health benefits and trends for the current year among 414 southeast Michigan-based organizations with 100-10,000 employees. The discussion will focus on the dramatic changes employers are making in plan design. The survey found the Michigan health care inflation rate was trending at 7 percent in 2010. Strategies on CDHP, plan deductibles, HMO coverage and wellness programs will also be discussed.
- 12:00 noon Adjournment
Dave Andrea, Senior Vice President, Industry Analysis and Economics, OESA
 - 2010 meeting date: October 21
- 12:00 – 1:00 p.m. Lunch – please join OESA for lunch to continue an informal discussion among our Council members and speakers.
