

Original Equipment Suppliers Association

AGENDA

OESA 2020 Webinar:
Force Majeure and Coronavirus
April 16, 2020
11 a.m. EDT

Login information will be sent one hour prior to the start of the webinar in a confirmation email.

- 11 a.m. Welcome and Opening Remarks
Drew Rhodes, Senior Manager, Events and Member Programs, OESA
- 11:05 a.m. Introduction to “Force Majeure” Contract Provisions
Martha J. Olijnyk, Director – Auto Supply Counseling and Litigation, Miller Law
Introduction to “force majeure” provisions and “commercial impracticability” doctrine where no force majeure provision is included in the contract
- 11:20 a.m. Notice Requirements
Lawrence J. Murphy, Partner – Auto Supply Counseling and Litigation, Miller Law
Address notice requirements in representative force majeure provisions, including potential obligation to provide ongoing reporting
- 11:35 a.m. Potential Risks in Asserting Force Majeure
Seth D. Gould, Partner – Auto Supply Counseling and Litigation, Miller Law
Discussion of potential risks and the scope of what actions can reasonably be demanded by a customer to mitigate the effect of a force majeure event (i.e., demands for expedited shipping; overtime, etc.)
- 11:50 a.m. Q&A
- 12:10 p.m. Wrap-up and Adjournment
Drew Rhodes, Senior Manager, Events and Member Programs, OESA

Content Provider:

