OESA Board Re-Elects Ramzi Y. Hermiz as 2019-2020 Board Chairman

SOUTHFIELD, Mich. (Nov. 13, 2019) – The Original Equipment Suppliers Association (OESA) is pleased to announce that Ramzi Y. Hermiz, president and CEO, Shiloh Industries, Inc., has been re-elected as chairman of the OESA Board of Directors for 2019-20. Hermiz was announced as the OESA board chairman at the 2019 OESA Automotive Supplier Conference held today in Novi, Mich.

“We are excited to have Ramzi return as chair of the OESA Board of Directors through 2020,” said Julie Fream, president and chief executive officer, OESA. “How OESA serves our members is evolving as quickly as the industry itself and Ramzi has shown great leadership and support for OESA.”

“I am honored to serve a second term as Chairman and look forward to continuing to support the mission and direction of OESA,” said Hermiz. “The association is thriving and continues to make major strides in championing the voice of the supplier industry.”

OESA also announced the election of Françoise Colpron, president, Valeo North America, Inc., and Ken Hopkins, president and CEO, Neapco Holdings, LLC, as vice chairs for 2019-20. Additional board members elected for terms beginning in 2019 are:

- Michael Brosseau, President, Röchling Automotive North America
- Pat D'Eramo, President and CEO, Martinrea International, Inc.
- Jon Husby, President and CEO, SEG Automotive North America
- Shannon Quinn, OE President, Bridgestone Americas, Inc.

About OESA

OESA's mission is to champion the business interests of automotive original equipment (OE) suppliers. Since 1998, the Association has been addressing issues of common concern and advocating on behalf of the supplier community throughout the supply chain and in Washington, D.C.

OESA is one of four divisions of the Motor & Equipment Manufacturers Association (MEMA). All divisions are represented by MEMA's advocacy and emerging technology expertise. For additional information, visit <http://www.oesa.org>.
