OESA Board Elects Françoise Colpron as Board Chairman; Ramzi Hermiz Elected as Board's Industry Advisor

SOUTHFIELD, Mich. (May 20, 2020) – The Original Equipment Suppliers Association (OESA) is pleased to welcome Françoise Colpron, group president, Valeo North America, as chair of the OESA Board of Directors. Prior to this week's election, Colpron served as vice chair since November 2019; she has served on the OESA board since 2015.

"We are honored to have Françoise at the helm of our board of directors," said Julie A Fream, president and CEO, OESA. "We appreciate her strategic leadership and commitment to champion the mission of OESA.

OESA also announced the re-election of Ramzi Hermiz to the board as an industry advisor. Hermiz served as chairman of the board from 2018-2020; he has been a member of the board since 2015.

"It is with much appreciation that I announce the election of Ramzi to the OESA board as an industry advisor," said Fream. "He has been a champion to the supplier industry for many years and we are delighted to have his continued support."

About OESA

OESA's mission is to champion the business interests of automotive original equipment (OE) suppliers. Since 1998, the Association has been addressing issues of common concern and advocating on behalf of the supplier community throughout the supply chain and in Washington, D.C.

OESA is one of four divisions of the Motor & Equipment Manufacturers Association (MEMA). All divisions are represented by MEMA's advocacy and emerging technology expertise.
