OESA Board of Directors Re-Elects Françoise Colpron as Board Chair; Welcomes Three New Board Members

SOUTHFIELD, Mich. (Jan. 5, 2021) – The Original Equipment Suppliers Association (OESA) is pleased to announce that Françoise Colpron, group president, Valeo North America, has been re-elected as chair of the OESA Board of Directors for 2021; she has served on the OESA board since 2015.

“I am honored to serve as OESA’s Chair and look forward to continuing to support its mission to champion the business interests of the automotive supplier community,” said Colpron. “OESA continues to drive positive change and collaboration throughout the supply chain and is a key resource for information and making connections throughout the industry.”

OESA also announces three new OESA board members elected for terms beginning January 1, 2021:

- Dr. Martin Fischer, President and Member of the Board of Management, ZF Group
- Donna Kuhr, CEO, President and Co-Owner, PTM Corporation
- Matthew Link, President and Co-Owner, Link Engineering Company

“We are delighted to have Françoise return as chair of the OESA Board of Directors through 2021,” said Julie A. Fream, president and chief executive officer, OESA. “And we are honored to welcome the new members of board. We look forward to their leadership and industry expertise as OESA continues to navigate the industry’s new norm.”

Ken Hopkins, president and CEO, Neapco Holdings, LLC, and Jon Husby, president and CEO, North America, SEG Automotive North America LLC, will serve as vice chairs for 2021.

About OESA

OESA’s mission is to champion the business interests of automotive original equipment (OE) suppliers. Since 1998, the Association has been addressing issues of common concern and advocating on behalf of the supplier community throughout the supply chain and in Washington, D.C.

OESA is one of four divisions of the Motor & Equipment Manufacturers Association (MEMA). All divisions are represented by MEMA’s advocacy and emerging technology expertise.
